

What President Obama Had to Say about Acupuncture

(April 29, 2009 at his St. Louis, MO Town Hall Meeting)

“I think it is pretty well documented through scientific studies that acupuncture, for example, can be very helpful in relieving certain things like migraines and other ailments -- or at least as effective as more intrusive interventions.”